HIGHLIGHTS OF LAST SUMMER'S TWO-WEEK CAMP

The Junior Orchestra performed at the Auburn Ave. African-American Research Library...in walking distance (Ms. Erma Dionne Davis conducts; she is Mr. Robinson's former student).

The Orchestra performed for the Boys and Girls Club of Atlanta.

The Orchestras and Dancers traveled to Macon, GA to perform at the United Methodist Children's Home (right).

Guest recording artist, Brooke "Viosocalist" Alford performs. Her sister, Mia Alford conducts.

- As every summer more learning (scales, arpeggios, etudes, exciting pieces, workshops, recess, etc.).
- Our summer lunches are great – delicious hot, home-cooked lunches (more like dinners in most cases). No boxed lunches like most other camps.
- We will take another short-distance trip (either in Georgia or nearby Alabama, Tennessee, or South Carolina).
- More performances and possibly some more "surprises." No one does it better than Sinfo-Nia.
- Electric violinist/recording artist, Ken Ford is scheduled to perform and give his famous, "Making the Violin Fun" workshop.
